

Vocabulary Study

STORY PREDICTIONS

A. Directions: Listen as your teacher reads each sentence about “Federigo’s Falcon.” Together, discuss what you know about the word or how it might be used. Write your ideas on the lines.

1. The lady shows discretion, believing that a married woman must display care and restraint.

2. The good woman never deigns to acknowledge him, despite his efforts to get her attention.

3. She asks his forgiveness for her presumption, fearing that he will find her request outrageous.

4. Her love for the child compels her to act in a way that is contrary to her usual behavior.

5. That creature was his only consolation, as he had lost everything else.

plot	character	setting	conflict	theme
------	-----------	---------	----------	-------

B. Directions: How might each boldfaced word in Part A relate to the words in the box? Write your predictions on the lines below.
