

from THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS

COPY MASTER

Question Support

LITERARY ANALYSIS

For questions 1–3, see page 511 of the Student Edition.

Directions: Answer the questions.

4. Understand Author's Purpose Circle Bunyan's purpose(s) in writing The Pilgrim's Progress

- | | |
|---|--|
| a. to inform readers about different religions | c. to tell an entertaining story |
| b. to teach an important moral lesson | d. to reflect on a real-life experience |

5. Compare and Contrast Characters Reread lines 50–72. Name two ways that the pilgrims are different than the merchants at the fair.

6. Examine Tone Tone is the author's attitude toward a subject. Reread each of the following scenes. Circle the word that best describes Bunyan's tone in each scene.

- | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|
| lines 73–90 | lines 103–119 |
| a. solemn | a. gleeful |
| b. satiric | b. doubtful |
| c. thrilled | c. awestruck |

7. Draw Conclusions In lines 91–102, Faithful dies in a terrible way. Do you think Bunyan feels that his fate is terrible? Explain your answer.

8. Analyze Allegory Match each character or place to the idea that it symbolizes. Write the letter of the idea in front of the symbol it is associated with.

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| ___ Christian | a. earthly desire for material goods |
| ___ Faithful | b. martyrdom |
| ___ Vanity Fair | c. people committed to Christianity |
| ___ Jury | d. the reward for living a just life |
| ___ Celestial City | e. hatred of Christians |