MAKE INFERENCES

To read some passages in the King James Bible, you may need to make inferences, or logical guesses, about their meaning. Making inferences involves using your own knowledge and details from a text to figure out information that is not directly stated.

Directions: As you read each selection, make inferences about the spiritual advice or lesson that is being communicated. Record your inferences on this chart. Also, record details from the text that support your inferences.

Selection	Inferences About Spiritual Advice or Lesson	Details from the Text
1. Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3
2. Psalm 23
3. Parable of the Prodigal Son

from ECCLESIASTES, CHAPTER 3 /
PSALM 23 / . . . THE PRODIGAL SON
