

from ECCLESIASTES, CHAPTER 3 / PSALM 23 / THE PARABLE OF THE PRODIGAL SON

Summary

THE PARABLE OF THE PRODIGAL SON FROM THE KING JAMES BIBLE

Setting: Ancient lands of present-day Israel and environs, Biblical Period A.D.

A man has two sons. One son leaves home. He is foolish and spends all his money. He is hungry, so he decides to return home. He wants his father to forgive him. He hopes his father will hire him as a servant.

The son arrives home. His father is happy to see him. He prepares a huge feast for his son. The older brother is angry. He has been good the whole time. He has received nothing. The father says that the older son has had what he needed. The younger son made mistakes and had nothing. Now he is home, where he belongs.

LA PARÁBOLA DEL HIJO PRÓDIGO DE LA VERSIÓN DE LA BIBLIA DEL REY JAIME

Escenario: Tierra antigua de lo que actualmente es Israel y sus alrededores, Período Bíblico, D. C.

Un hombre tiene dos hijos. Uno se va de la casa. Tontamente gasta todo su dinero. Le da hambre, entonces decide regresar a casa. Quiere que su padre lo perdone. Espera que su padre lo contrate como sirviente.

El hijo llega a casa. Su padre está feliz de verlo. Prepara un gran banquete para su hijo. El hijo mayor se enoja. Él siempre ha sido bueno. Él no ha recibido nada. El padre dice que el hijo mayor ha tenido lo que ha necesitado. El hijo menor cometió errores y no tenía nada. Ahora está en casa, donde pertenece.
