

Vocabulary Study

WORD MAPS

A. Directions: As your teacher reads each phrase, listen for the boldfaced word. Then together create a separate word map, like the one shown, for each word. Fill in as much information as you can.

- his constant indolence, which left every task undone or unfinished
- sad, unexpected news that was met with cries of lamentation
- the invading soldiers, whose plundering stripped the houses of their valuables
- blessed to be in subjection to a noble, kind ruler

Word
Definition
What It Is
What It Is Not Related Words
I'll remember this word by connecting it to ...

B. Directions: Answer each question, using the words in Part A.

5. Which word most likely names the kinds of noises that you would hear at a funeral?

6. Which word best relates to a lack of activity?

7. Which word best relates to the importance of obeying the laws of the land?

8. Which word tells how pirates probably would treat a treasure ship?
