ASK A PEER READER

To see whether your script has clearly communicated the intended effect, ask a peer reviewer to read it.

Directions: Give your peer reader this sheet. Have him or her record answers to the following questions and then give you suggestions for revision.

1. Do the initial stage directions and opening scene establish the setting, characters and conflict?

---

---

2. Does the script fully explore the ideas it introduces?

---

---

3. Do all the events move the script forward?

---

---

4. Is dialogue used appropriately to advance the script's plot and to develop characters and theme?

---

---

---

5. Does the script suggest an explicit or implicit theme?

---

---

6. Does the script end with a resolution of the conflict and a clear indication of the theme?
