

Script

PREWRITING

Use the question below to help you plan your script.

Directions: Write the title of your script on the line below. Then, answer each question to help you plan your script.

Title: _____

Central Idea:

- What is the big idea? _____

Literary Elements:

- Who are the characters? _____

- When and where is the script set? _____

- What conflict do the characters face? _____

- What is the plot? _____

- What is the theme? _____

Audience and Purpose:

- Who is the audience? _____

- What information will my audience need to know? _____

Research Your Characters:

- What was life like at the time these people were alive? _____

Organize Your Script:

- How does the conflict affect the organization of your script? _____

Theme:

- What message about life do I want readers to get from my script? _____