

Vocabulary Study

WORD MAPS

A. Directions: As your teacher reads each phrase, listen for the boldfaced word. Then together create a separate word map for each word like the one shown. Fill in as much information as you can.

- to conjecture falsely
- a dog that is submissive to its owner
- manual dexterity
- a diminutive elf
- a prodigious mountain
- the rivals’ fierce animosity
- to foment rebellion
- saving for one’s posterity

| | |
|---|--|
| Word | |
| Definition | |
| What It Is | |
| What It Is Not | |
| Related Words | |
| I’ll remember this word by connecting it to . . . | |

B. Directions: Answer each question, using the words in Part A.

- Which words describe size? _____
- Which word has to do with using one’s fingers? _____
- Which word has to do with the use of one’s mind? _____
- Which words have to do with attitudes? _____
- Which word names action that usually has dangerous consequences? _____
- Which word looks forward in time? _____