

Literary Analysis

SPEAKER

The speaker in a poem is the voice that “talks” to the reader. The speaker is not the same as the poet. In a lyric, a single speaker conveys personal thoughts and feelings on a particular subject.

Directions: Use the chart to record the speaker of each poem and the feelings each speaker conveys.

Poem	Speaker	Feelings Conveyed
“On Her Loving Two Equally”
“Written at the Close of Spring”		