

Question Support

LITERARY ANALYSIS

For questions 1–3, see page 810 of the Student Edition.

Directions: Answer the questions.

4. Make Inferences About Setting In “Tintern Abbey,” Wordsworth says very little about the abbey itself because _____

5. Analyze Stylistic Elements Wordsworth once called poetry “the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings.” Think about “Tintern Abbey.”

What stylistic elements does he use to express this overflow of powerful feelings? _____

6. Examine Romantic Poetry Pick one poem from the lesson. Give examples that show each of the conventions of romantic poetry listed below.

Name of the poem _____

Love of nature _____

Interest in the individual _____

7. Draw Conclusions According to Wordsworth, memories of the past help people because _____

8. Evaluate Sonnets “Composed upon Westminster Bridge” and “The World Is Too Much with Us” are Petrarchan sonnets. For each poem, explain the speaker’s situation in the octave (first 8 lines) and his conclusion in the sestet (last 6 lines).

Poem	Octave	Sestet
“Composed upon Westminster Bridge”
“The World Is Too Much with Us”

9. Compare Texts Compare “I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud” and Dorothy’s journal entry on page 809 of your textbook. How are the two descriptions alike?
