

Poem

PLANNING/PREWRITING

To get ideas for your poem, make a list of some of your most vivid memories of nature or natural events.

Directions: In the first column of the chart, list an image that you have from nature. Then, freewrite a brief description of that image, and write down some sensory details that you associate with that image. Finally, circle the image you would like to write about.

Image from Nature	Description	Sensory Details