

Vocabulary Practice

affronted	bigoted	propensity
assent	penitence	upbraiding

Directions: Choose the word that best completes each sentence.

1. I thought my neighbor was _____ because she often judged people that she had never met and wouldn't accept people who were different from her.
2. She had a _____ for basing her opinions on inaccurate stereotypes.
3. I once mentioned this problem to her, but she was terribly _____ that I accused her of being prejudiced.
4. She gave me a loud _____ in which she gave an unpersuasive list of reasons why I was wrong.
5. One way that she has shown her _____ is by volunteering at the local community center.
6. Yesterday, she even told me that she will give her _____ to attend a seminar about living together in multicultural communities.