

Reading Check

Directions: Recall the ideas in David Brooks and Bob Herbert’s editorials. Then answer the questions in phrases or sentences.

1. According to “Good News About Poverty,” what did the World Bank report say?

2. According to “Good News About Poverty,” what area of the world is not enjoying economic improvement?

3. According to “Good News About Poverty,” what are two things that threaten stable growth?

4. According to “The White-Collar Blues,” what is happening to white-collar jobs in America?

5. What does Herbert say in “The White-Collar Blues” that workers can do to protect themselves?
