

Media Literacy: International News

MEDIA ACTIVITY

You can determine whether a new report is objective.

Directions: Find a recent international report from a major news outlet in the United States. Copy down a portion of the article in the first column of the chart. Then, based on the language used, write down your impressions of the country featured in the article.

Article Text	My Impressions