

Media Literacy: International News

PRODUCE YOUR OWN MEDIA

You can analyze worldwide news coverage.

Directions: With a partner, choose a recent event in the United States that received international coverage. Find reports from one major news outlet in the United States and at least two other nations. Use the chart to describe how one of the reports presents the event. On another sheet of paper, create a chart for each additional report.

Report Title:
Source:
What is the angle of this report?
What is the tone of this report?
How are sound bites or quotations used in this report?
What is the political viewpoint of this report?	