

RESEARCH STRATEGIES WORKSHOP

COPY MASTER

Research Paper

FINDING THE RIGHT SOURCES

You can identify possible sources about your topic by searching the Internet, your school’s media center, and your local library. You can also gather original data about your topic.

Directions: In the first column of the chart, record the names of sources you find for your research topic. In the second column, write comments about the usefulness of each source.

| Sources  | My Comments |
|--|-------------|
| World Wide Web   |             |
| Public Library   |             |
| School Media Center  |             |
| Original Research (interviews, surveys, experiments, etc.) |             |